SCOUTING SETON HALL: The Friars have been on a roller coaster this season filled with plenty of ups and downs. Providence holds a 2-4 record in conference and a 8-10 overall record. The season began on a four game losing streak before winning the next six matches including victories over Saint Peter's and Bryant. The Friars then went cold, losing six of their next seven matches. This losing streak extended into conference action where the team was swept in their first four matches against Seton Hall, St. John's, DePaul, and Marquette. Last weekend, the Friars bounced back with thrilling five-set victories over Georgetown and Villanova.

Providence has struggled on offense during conference play, ranking last in four different categories, including kills per set, assists per set, digs per set and serving aces per set. The Bulldogs have to watch out for Lyric Berry whose 1.15 blocks per set is second in the BIG EAST play this season.

SCOUTING ST. JOHN'S: The Huskies sit at the bottom of the BIG EAST standings and are the last remaining team without a win in conference this season. UConn began the season with a 5-7 record with wins over Merrimack and Rhode Island along with challenges against Michigan State and Florida State losing both matches 3-0. Their last win dates back to Sept. 16 where they beat Binghamton in five sets. The Huskies then hit conference play where they have lost six straight matches. Last weekend, UConn fell to Villanova 3-0 and Georgetown 3-1.

Emma Werkminster has been one of the few bright spots for UConn totaling a team-high 204 kills (3.04 kills per set) this season. Werkminster ranks sixth in conference matches with an average of 3.50 kills per set.

Head Coach Kyle Shondell

Kyle Shondell, the 2022 AVCA National Coach of the Year in NAIA men's volleyball, was hired to the lead the Butler women's volleyball program in March of 2023.

Shondell is the sixth head coach in the program's NCAA history, which dates back to the 1975 season.

Shondell arrives at Butler after restarting the Indiana Tech men's volleyball program in 2019. He led the team to a record of 56-21 in the program's first three seasons, including a 29-3 mark in 2022. Indiana Tech finished the 2022 season ranked No. 3 nationally in the final NAIA poll, earning Shondell the AVCA National Coach of the Year honors.

Indiana Tech made consecutive appearances in the NAIA National Tournament (2021 and 2022), while claiming the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference (WHAC) regular season championship both seasons.

In each of those seasons, Shondell was also named the conference Coach of the Year and his team was ranked among the Top 10 nationally.

On the women's side, Shondell has experience leading the Huntington University program for the 2015 through 2018 seasons. He recruited and developed four All-Americans and 12 all-conference players during those four seasons, qualifying for the conference tournament each year. His Huntington teams won 28 conference games over his four seasons, while the program only posted a total of eight in the four seasons prior to his arrival. During his time at Huntington, he also worked for the university's career services office while leading the women's volleyball program.

As the head coach at Rock Valley College in Illinois during the 2013 campaign, Shondell led the women's program to 21 wins and was ranked seventh nationally in NJCAA Division III.

Shondell has experience as an assistant coach at both Chicago State (2014) and Western Illinois (2012). He has coached at clubs and at camps throughout the Midwest since 2009.
